SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report No. 37
14 - 20 October 1960

I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. It appears that the refusal of Columbia University to accept [] as a student of China has had rather fortunate repercussions. The seminar conducted by Lord Lindsey at American University was originally to consist of seven students, but has narrowed down to [] and one other who is only present part time. [] is gaining the advantage of a personal tutorial program and appears to be very pleased with the insights and advice which he has gained so far.

3. This week represents the conclusion of four weeks of [redacted] 25X1 tutorial. [redacted] tells me that we entered upon this program somewhat 25X1 reluctantly on a four-week basis since we had already completed a four-week [redacted] earlier in the year and are not interested in F 25X1 developing a precedent for further requests of this kind. The Station apparently was insistent, however, and fortunately the program was quite pleasant for all concerned. Since we don't have the manpower to do this very often, with your permission I'm going to try to limit our tutorials to a maximum of two weeks - with preference being given to a one-week schedule which follows a standard pattern we have developed.
The exception would be [redacted] request for which the four-week 25X1 schedule was purposely developed.
